

Vermont Unemployment Report June 2014 [PDF]

The Vermont Department of Labor announced today that the seasonally-adjusted statewide unemployment rate for June 2014 was 3.5 percent. This represents an increase of two-tenths of a percent from the previously reported May rate (3.3 percent). The equivalent national average was 6.1 percent, which decreased by two-tenths of a percent from the previous month's estimate. This is the first monthly increase to the statewide unemployment rate in Vermont in ten months. As of the prior month's initial data, Vermont's unemployment rate was the second lowest in the country.
